RCom subscribers to get commodity prices

Mumbai: Reliance Communications today said it has launched Commodity Quotes, an application through which the telecom company's subscribers can access live prices on various commodity exchanges. The application is likely to help people in remote rural areas to know market prices of various commodities. The solution is offered in partnership with TV Eighteen India's Web18 initiative, commoditycontrol.com. NewsWire18 is a subsidiary of TV18. At 3:10PM, RCom shares were at Rs 507 on the NSE.
